- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

The National Intelligence Council (NIC) consists of the most senior and expert intelligence analysts supporting the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) in carrying out responsibilities as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC) and as the principal adviser to the President for intelligence matters related to national security. The NIC produces a variety of all-source, IC coordinated intelligence reports, including its flagship product, the National Intelligence Estimate, which represents the Intelligence Community's most authoritative statement on a key national security issue.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

As a member of the National Intelligence Council, the NIO/Near East will lead Intelligence Community (IC)-wide production and coordination of analytic assessments on Middle East and North African countries, (including NIEs, other community papers, IC Assessments and Sense of the Community Memoranda). As appropriate, the NIO will lead more focused, time-sensitive analysis for the most senior decision makers in the USG.

Orchestrate, direct, and in some cases draft Community-wide mid- and long-term strategic analysis to support and advance senior policy maker and war fighter understanding of Middle East and North African countries. Serve as subject matter expert and analytic advisor on Middle East and North African issues in support of the DNI's role as the principal intelligence advisor to the President.

Liaise and collaborate with senior policy makers in ensuring that policy maker priorities guide national-level intelligence analysis.

Develop and sustain a professional network with IC analysts and analytic managers to ensure timely and appropriate intelligence support to policy customers regarding Middle East and North African issues. Similarly, develop and sustain a network with industry, academic, and other USG Middle East and North Africa subject matter experts.

Brief senior IC members, policy makers, military decision makers, members of Congress, and other major stakeholders as necessary on the IC's analytic assessment on Middle East and North African issues.

Review and provide input over the research and production plans on Middle East and North African issues of the Community's analytic components, identify redundancies and gaps, identify strategies to address gaps, and advise the DNI on gaps and shortfalls in analytic capabilities across the IC.

Lead, manage, and direct the professional-level analytic staff of the NIO/Near East, evaluate performance, collaborate on goal setting, and provide feedback and guidance regarding personal and professional development opportunities.

Serve as a corporate resource for the NIC by contributing to the NIC-wide annual research program and analytic outreach plan, participating in peer review of NIC products, and being an active participant in NIC corporate decision making.

Working with the NIM-Near East and NIM-Africa teams, develop the analytic portion of the UIS and the SOM for the Near East and Africa.

Work with the NIM/Near East and NIM-Africa teams to assist in ensuring that analysis and collection are fully integrated, and participate as appropriate in helping determining the state of collection on Middle East and North African issues, identifying gaps, and supporting integrated Community-wide strategies to mitigate any gaps.

Represent analytic positions in liaison relationships with key foreign intelligence services, government officials, and other experts on the Middle East and North Africa.

Oversee and manage the conduct of foreign intelligence relationships, and serve as a principal interface with external entities.

Lead, manage, and direct a professional level staff, evaluate performance, collaborate on goal setting, and provide feedback and guidance regarding personal and professional development opportunities.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Expert leadership and managerial capabilities, including the ability to effectively direct taskings, assess and manage performance, and oversee personal and professional development of all levels of personnel.

Established and recognized substantive expertise in all relevant Middle East and North Africa topic areas.

Experience and expertise effectively working with senior policy makers and war fighters, to include a deep and current understanding of their intelligence/analytic requirements and priorities related to the Middle East and North Africa.

Experience producing, editing, and leading strategic analysis.

Proven critical thinking and writing skills including the ability to draft finished all source intelligence assessments and review written products with an emphasis on clear organization, and concise, and logical presentation.

Experience working with academic experts and foreign liaison on the Middle East and North African issues.

Expertise and experience in managing analytic processes, understanding IC analytic capabilities and priorities, and working at senior levels across the community to drive analytic product.

Demonstrated capability to direct interagency, interdisciplinary IC teams against a range of functional and/or regional analytical issues.

Excellent interpersonal, organizational, and management skills to effectively lead complex analytic projects with limited supervision. Ability to work with and fairly represent the IC when analytic views differ among agencies.
